2. All the world is God's own field, fruit unto his praise yield;
wheat and tares together sown unto joy or sorrow grown.
First the blade and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear; Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

3. For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take His harvest home;
from the field shall in that day
all offences purge away, give his angels charge at last
in the fire the tares to cast;
but the fruitful ears to store
in the garner evermore.

4. Even so, Lord, quickly come,
bring thy final harvest home;
gather thou thy people in,
free from sorrow, free from sin,
there, forever purified,
in thy garner to abide;
come, with all thine angels come,
raise the glorious harvest home.
